Surely God is good to Israel

- 4 So their people, turning to them, praise the wicked to the sky,
saying, "How can God control us?
Are we known to God Most High?"
Thus the wicked grow in riches, all anxiety laid by.
- 5 Have I kept my heart for nothing, washed my hands in innocence?
All day long your plagues are on me;
daily are my pains intense.
If I spoke thus, then your children would have suffered great offence.
- 6 When I tried to understand this,
it was all too hard for me till I came into God's temple –
then I saw their destiny;
for on slippery ground you place them
and destroy them utterly.
- 7 How they're shattered in a moment,
swept away by sudden fear!
As a dream when one awakens,
so, O Lord, when you appear,
you will mock their aspirations,
and their hopes will disappear.
- 8 When my spirit was embittered and my heart with grief brought low, like a beast I was before you – dull, in understanding slow.
Yet, O Lord, you hold my right hand;
with you I will always go.
- 9 To your glory you will bring me with your counsel as my guide.
I have none but you in heaven;
all on earth I lay aside.
Flesh and heart may fail, but ever God my portion will abide.
- 10 Those far off from you will perish;
you give them their due reward.
As for me, it is a blessing to be near the Sovereign LORD.
I have made my God my refuge;
all your deeds I will record.
