

PSALM

108 O LORD God, my heart is steadfast

G Em C G Em D

1 O LORD God, my heart is steadfast, and with all my soul I'll sing.
 2 LORD my God, among the nations I will ever give you praise;
 3 For your steadfast love is boundless, greater than the heavens high;

G C D G D C G D G C D G

Harp and lyre I will awaken, and my song the dawn will bring.
 in the midst of all the peoples I will sing of you always.
 and your faithfulness towards us reaches even to the sky.

4 Far above the highest heavens
 be exalted, O my God;
 and through all the earth around us
 let your glory spread abroad.

8 "Moab will become my servant,
 and upon Philistia's shore
 I will shout aloud in triumph;
 I am Lord and conqueror."

5 With your right hand save and help us;
 rescue all those whom you love.
 God has spoken from his temple,
 from his holy place above:

9 Who will bring me to the city
 that is strongly fortified,
 and to reach the land of Edom
 who will be my help and guide?

6 "I will distribute in triumph
 every part of Shechem's land,
 and the whole of Succoth valley
 I will measure with my hand.

10 Have you not, O God, rejected,
 turned us over to our foe?
 When our armies go to battle,
 with them you no longer go.

7 "Mine is Gilead, mine Manasseh,
 Ephraim is my helmet true;
 Judah I will make my sceptre
 and on Edom toss my shoe.

11 Since all human help is worthless,
 God will give us victory;
 He it is who will defend us
 and tread down our enemy.
